

Iron Sharpens Iron

By Dn Yonnas · Moral & Spiritual Life · Youth

Summary

"As iron sharpens iron, so one person sharpens another" (Proverbs 27:17). A youth lesson on why we were designed for community, not isolation: the power of our words, the patience to love difficult people, and the call to uplift others with compassion over judgment.

Lesson Objectives

- See that nothing extraordinary is built alone — we were designed for one another
- Take seriously the power of words for death and life
- Choose compassion over judgment in daily relationships

Key Bible Verses

Proverbs 27:17 — "As iron sharpens iron, so a man sharpens the countenance of his friend"

Proverbs 18:21 — "Death and life are in the power of the tongue"

Ecclesiastes 4:9–10 — "Two are better than one... woe to him who is alone when he falls"

Main Teaching Points

- No one is a one-man army — Rome was not built alone
- Family, friendship, and church are God's design for sharpening us
- People are difficult because people are real — love takes time, energy, and sacrifice
- 'Sticks and stones' is a misconception: words wound and words heal
- We are what we repeatedly do — identity is built from habits
- Do not look down on anyone unless you are reaching down to lift them up

Key Terms

- Fellowship — The shared life of believers who sharpen one another in love.
- Compassion — Stepping into another's shoes; the love that kills judgment.

Discussion & Reflection

- Who has sharpened you the most in your life, and how?
- When did someone's words build you up or tear you down?
- What would 'compassion over judgment' look like at school this week?
