

Patience

By Dn Yonnas · Moral & Spiritual Life · Youth

Summary

"Wait patiently for the Lord. Be brave and courageous" (Psalm 27:14). A short youth lesson on why nothing good happens overnight: the patience of Moses, Abraham, and Noah, and patience as the testing period in which God develops who you need to become.

Lesson Objectives

- Understand patience as part of how God forms us
- Learn from the patience of Moses, Abraham, and Noah
- Reframe waiting seasons as development, not delay

Key Bible Verses

Psalm 27:14 — "Wait patiently for the Lord. Be brave and courageous."

2 Peter 3:8–9 — one day is as a thousand years; the Lord is not slack concerning His promise

James 1:3–4 — the testing of your faith produces patience

Main Teaching Points

- Rome was not built in a day — nothing good happens overnight
- Moses waited forty years in the wilderness; Abraham received Isaac at one hundred
- Noah waited a hundred and fifty days for the waters to recede
- Patience is one of life's greatest teachers
- Waiting is a testing period in which you become the person who can carry the blessing
- God's timing is not slowness but mercy (2 Peter 3:9)

Key Terms

- Long-suffering — The patient endurance that Scripture counts among the fruit of the Spirit (Gal 5:22).
- Providence — God's wise care ordering all things — including the timing we do not choose.

Discussion & Reflection

- What are you waiting for right now, and how are you waiting?
- Why does God often make His saints wait?
- What could you build in yourself during this waiting season?
